P. P. MAUÁ & Co.,
Dec. 1, 1864. WILLIAM LESLIE.

MAUA BANK,

CALLE CANGALLO, Nos 101—103

The Offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank:—

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with Merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously convened under conditions established for such class of operations

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the depositors being allowed to retire at any time, by means of cheques, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred doubloons or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta. Fé, Saito Oriental, Payasandu, Rio Janeiro, and other places in the Brasils, England and France, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 9 a.m. till 4 p.m.

P. P. MAUÁ & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its Kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £'00,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over three million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 99 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1862 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £846,070 is real and subtantial property;" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, or. Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Uruguay arrived yesterday morning from Montevideo, but brought no particular news. She left immediately for the Uruguay, taking up a number of passengers.

It appears that the U. S. war steamer Iroquois has come down to Buenos Ayres for the express purpose of looking for Capt. Semmes, who it is said left Nassau bound for the River Plate. The name of his new vessel is not known, but he took with him from Liverpool, on board the Laurel, eight officers and 400 men, and if report be true, may be expected either in Montevideo or here shortly. The Iriquois was put in quarantine when she arrived in port, but she is now at liberty.

What's to be done if the Paraguayans cross Corrientes and invade the Banda Oriental? is the great question discussed in the Government House. The President, we hear, is for the most active measures, but the Minister of War thinks it better not to interfere, as all the soldiers are at present required on the frontier, and if they are moved from there the Indians may come into the very towns. A very bitter article appeared in Wednesday evening's "Nacional," showing that we have neither army nor navy to rely upon in case of a war. It is to be hoped, however, that things are not so bad as they look, and that in a day or two the Ygurey, laden with yerba and tobacco, will enter port. The agent of the steamers, Sr. Eguzquiza, is hardly able to answer all the enquiries made at his office about the steamer and the war. He professes to know nothing, but thinks it very probable that the missing steamer has run aground in the Parana.

The new English race-course, we hear, will be in the neighbourhood of the Lomas de Zamorra, and a magnificent stand-house is talked about, as the railway will be very soon open to the Lomas. We do not think the committee could select a better or more convenient place.

Dr. Caballeros, who died recently in San Fernando, was greatly esteemed and respected; strange to say, his brother, who was residing in Cordova, when he heard of his death, expired immediately.

An English gentleman called on us yesterday to complain of the ruffianly conduct of some 'vigilantes' in the Plaza Lorea. He says that in E gland a man would be punished for beating or ill-using a beast, but to cut and hack an unfortunate Basque, who offered no opposition, and whose only crime was being drunk, seems to be no offence whatever in Buenos Ayres. We comply with the request of our subscriber in calling attention to the matter, but have little hope that the swords will be taken from the policemen.

To-day we publish another letter from our "special correspondent" in Ireland. Early in 1865 we shall be enabled to furnish our English and Scotch readers with similar news from home; we expect the first of these letters in February. From this day (Dec 1st) we have also made arrangements to get 1200 supplements printed at Montevideo on the arrival of each steamer with latest news, from Southampton, Bordeaux and Liverpool, for distribution simultaneously with the native papers.

Monsieur Carpentier who had left for Valparaiso after arranging his mail-coach project (from Chile to Rosario) with our Government, has returned to B. Ayres, having only reached Rosario when he was recalled by the Minister of Interior. We sincerely hope no unforeseen difficulty has sprung up to impede so important an enterprise.

In yesterday's paper we erroneously stated that Sor Gomez Sanchez in the Peruvian Legislature was the only opponent to the projected French protectorate. He it was who brought forward and advocated the measure, and as he is now a member of the Cabinet of Lima, it would seem the Government is inclined to accept his proposal of laying the Republic at the feet of Napoleon III.

We have been promised samples of the wool which fetched the highest price this year (as yet), to be forwarded to the Dublin Exhibition. They belong to a German farmer.

The new steamer Estrella del Norte leaves the Boca to-morrow morning, for the Tigre, and will make a trial trip to San Pedro, returning on Tuesday morning.

In the Montevidean papers we read that Sr. Silva, agent for the Brazilian steamers, attempted to commit suicide by taking strychnine, but is now, in a fair way of recovery.

Coal is at present very scarce in the River Plate, and the 'Iron King' tug-boat had some difficulty in getting a supply to return to Rosario. A factor n Montevideo supplied 1,000 tons to Admiral M'Mahon's fleet, en route for the Chincha Islands, at $22 silver, per ton, the usual price being only $14. Sr. Matti is the only large holder, but he requires his stock for the river steamers.

The "Nacional" gives an account of the execution of the murderer Benito Gomez last week at Dolores. When the escort stopped at a pulperia near that town, an Italian who was working there became so excited that he rushed into a thicket and stabbed himself fatally in three places. Gomez was attended by a priest but evinced no sign of penitence, and with difficulty could be persuaded to suffer his eyes to be bandaged. After receiving the contents of four carbines he died instantly, and his body was then hanged in the usual manner.

The annual examinations at the University commenced yesterday; the classes of Chemistry and Jurisprudence produced 17 students deserving honorable mention.

Messrs. José Germendia and Oscar Laser are named attaches to the Argentine Mission at Rio Janeyro. Sor. Marmol will leave in a few days.

Admiral Tamandaré left port yesterday morning on board the Brazilian gunboat Recife, for the Uruguay. The Becberibe also accompanied him.

It is rumored that Sor. Cruez will shortly be removed from the Spanish Embassy of Buenos Ayres to resume some post in Montevideo. She Spanish sloop Wad-rus, and Italian war-steamer Veloce are ordered to take up position at Paysandú.

The 'Nacional' gives an alarm about the proposed suppression of the Municipality. It seems the National Government will not allow a re-electon of the Corporation until the new Law of Elections be passed, and the affairs of the city during 1865 will be entrusted to a committee of competent persons. We rejoice over the demise of so disgraceful a Municipality, and would willingly recal their manifold barbarities, but for the axiom "De mortuis nil nisi oonum." R.I.P., Q.E.P.D.

MR. BRIHUEGA'S SLANDERS.

We conceive that it would be unjust and ungenerous, were we to allow the slanders of Mr. Brihuega to pasa unanswered or unnoticed.

Mr. Brihuega is some unknown writer in Old Spain, who thinks proper to publish in a Madrid newspaper, called 'Musco Universal,' a series of the most lying calumnies against a country and a people lineally descended from his own. Mr. Brihuega attempts to prove that the most polished society in South America consists of a set of mulattoes and half-castes, inferior to the wildest 'gaucho' in everything save corruption. He goes on to show that the gentlemen who occupy the most important places of trust in South America are destitute of education, and slaves to passions only known to half-breeds. He attempts to treat, in an ethnological manner, of the inferiority of all South Americans, owing to the mixture of the black and white blood, and, in a word, that South American society consists of a set of bastards and freebooters unparallelled in any other part of the world.

We have neither space nor inclination to follow Mr. Brihuega through his article, for many parts of it are too disgusting for our columns. It is, however, a matter of the greatest surprise to us, that in so polished a society as Madrid, such unheard-of calumnies could find publication.

All nations and peoples have their faults; it is absurd to suppose that Argentines are an exception to this rule, and had the Spaniard confined his remarks to the institutions of this country, he might have found some to agree with him, but he attacks the people and their morals—the preceding generation more than the present—and in order to wound Argentines more deeply, attempts to palliate their faults by the crimes of their ancestors.

For the honor of the matrons of Buenos Ayres, for the reputation and character of society in the River Plate, we unhesisatingly deny every assertion made by the degenerate writer in the "Museo Universal." So infamous an attack upon a kindred people, such ruffianly slanders upon a friendly nation, could only emanate from the descendant of some depraved Moor who, through ignorance, hates America, which, probably, he has never seen, or detests a people too dignified to despise him.

We link ourselves to no party or politics, and fearlessly call attention to abuses, no matter where they exist, but in justice to the country of our adoption, we must say that, with all the mulattoes and half-castes of which the Spaniard says our society consists, we doubt if we could find in Buenos Ayres a ruffian to insult Spanish women and Spanish virtue in such a manner as the barefaced slanderer Brihuega has done towards the people of Buenos Ayres.

OUTRAGES IN TUCUMAN.

The peaceable neighbors of this city have been alarmed by two terrible occurrences within the last few days. D. Vicente Roldan has been murdered at his residence in Monteros, and D. Estevan Lopez, of Raco has escaped a similar fate but is badly wounded. Several extraordinary circumstances in connection with these crimes have given them a peculiar coloring and caused great popular excitement as both cases are traced to the same agency.

For motives of prudence the press must refrain from commenting on the matter or anticipating opinions that might prejudice the public mind, while the cases are waiting decision before the ordinary tribunals.—El Liberal.

[Respecting the above we again repeat our protest against the system of cloaking the most horrid enormities under the mask of prudence. In England the press is the most efficient auxiliary in the detection of crime, because it is open and free-spoken, but we augur little flood for a country where the murder of two respectable citizens in broad-day light is ascribed to a mysterious agency, and the same dagger has terrors for the public writer who excuse his silence on the plea of virtuous moderation.—ED. STANDARD.]

IRELAND.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

Dublin, October 22.

At the Holywood Gneat, near Balbriggan, on the evening of the 10th of October, a murder of a shocking character was committed, the victims being two sisters, named Ellen and Anne Murphy. The ill-fated women lived with their brother, Richard Murphy, who holds a farm of 14 acres, under a Mr. Davis. The brother is in custody on suspicion. At the inquest he made a voluntary statement, to the effect that he went on the evening of the 10th to see a married sister, leaving the deceased alive in the house, and that on his return, at half-past eight o'clock, he found his sister Ellen lying dead in the house, and Anne absent. Having procured the aid of a neighbor, named Nowlan, a search was made for the missing sister, and she was immediately found lying dead in a field, the lower part of her face fearfully mangled. It was surmised at first that this atrocious deed was perpetrated by some insane person; but within the past few days facts have been brought out which go to implicate the brother. It appears that the father of the murdered women, on his demise, left the farm to his son Richard, with a charge upon it of £15 each to the sisters, Ellen and Anne. One of the executors of the will died about a month ago, and it is supposed that this circumstance caused a dispute between the brother and sisters, which has resulted in the fearful death of the latter. On the afternoon of Wednesday, the 12th, the sisters were interred in the churchyard of Great Holywood. Richard Murphy remains in Kilmainham Gaol, bail to a large amount having been refused. A committee has been formed here, with the Right Hon. Peter Paul M'Swiney, Lord Mayor of Dublin, at its head, for the purpose of pushing the Papal Loan of £2,000,000 in Ireland. The Hibernian Bank now receive subscriptions to the loan, which is to be issued at par, leaving five per cent. interest. Mr. Mackey, Beresford-place, has been elected for the Fitzwilliam Ward, in room of the late Councillor John Martin. On October 12th, the long line of stables at the rere of Breslin's Hotel, Bray, was entirely destroyed by fire, the main building narrowly escaping. Last week two large sharks were caught between the Muglins and Dalkey Island. A seaman of the Royal George, named Michael Balfe, was drowned at Kingstown on the 14th of October. The ship Raymond has arrived out at New York, from Dublin, with a large number of emigrants, who were landed all well. Emigration from the port of Waterford continues unabated: from Cork, Belfast, Dublin, and other ports there is a marked decrease in the numbers leaving Ireland. The health of the late Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Lord Carlisle, is improving; his successor in the Viceroyalty, Lord Wodehouse, will occupy the Castle on the 28th. The Catholic Archbishop of Cashel and Emly, the Most Rev. Dr. Leahy, is now in Paris as annual visitor of the Irish College. The worst of ill-luck has attended the Galway Atlantic Packet Company from first to last; its affairs are about to be "wound-up," but, at the very outset of the liquidator's efforts, no purchaser can be found for the ships! vessels on which the savings of hundreds of the struggling and industrious traders of Dublin were recklessly expended. In a letter addressed to Father Thomas Doyle, P.P., Wexford, Charles Gavin Duffy states that he will leave Australia for Ireland in February next. In the county of Cork a Mr. Edmondson has grown 72 acres of flax this year, and the crop is likely to realise 30 per cent., clear of all expenses. Michael Banim, one of the authors of the popular Irish work, "Tales of the O'Hara Family," has been put out of the corporation of Kilkenny, thus proving the truth of the adage of "a prophet in his own country," &c. Michael and John Banim (the bust of the latter by Hogan graces the Council-room of the Kilkenny corporation,) are an honor to that city, and I cannot understand this display of bad taste on the part of the burgesses of the famed city of cats. Potatoes in Ireland this year are turning out real "thumpers,"—one off a stalk grown near the Cross of Ballinacurra, Limerick, weighed two-and-a-half pounds. A woman named Gloster, living with her son, caretaker of one of the locks of the canal leading out of the Shannon from Plassy-bridge, has attained the extraordinary age of one hundred and eighteen years, enjoys good health and all her faculties. At Milton Malby, on the 15th Oct., a farmer named John Canny, of Treigh, was drowned while fishing for bream. It appears that witches are not yet defunct in Ireland, the magistrates of Castleconnel having just sentenced a woman named O'Grady to one month's imprisonment for practising on the credulity of some of the inhabitants of that picturesque and and historic locality, by persuading them of her power to deliver them from all the ills of the world. At the Killaloe Quarter Sessions, on Oct. 19, T. J. Mackey, alias Thomas Murphy, was sentenced to three years of penal servitude for raising money under false pretences in the assumed character of a Catholic Priest. Two old and respectable inhabitants of Dundalk have just passed away—John Hale, Esq., late of Fonthill, and Richard Madham Esq., late Harbour Engineer. At Limerick, on Sunday evening, Oct. 16, a pawn office in May-street was broken into and upwards of £60 in money, together with a large amount of watches, jewellery, etc., taken—no clue has been found to the robbery. At Lurgan, Armagh, recently, a young man named Pickeram, mounted to the top of his brother's house to put a wet sack on a chimney that had caught fire, and while so doing he looked into the opening, when he was instantly suffocated—all efforts to restore life proved ineffectual. In the neighborhood of Limerick, English buyers continue to buy up large quantities of hay, and the farmers in Munster generally have realized large profits from this year's crop. The Protestant Cathedral of Cork is about to be re-erected at a cost of £26,000. During the past month fever has been very prevalent in Belfast; a change in the weather within the past few days has, however, checked the disease. The extensive premises of Edward Costello, grocer, &c., Carrick-on-Shannon, were burned down on the 9th Oct. A pauper named Pauder was burned to death, by his clothes taking fire, in the Longford workhouse last week. On Oct. 12 a man named Bevan was drowned at Russel's-quay, Limerick, while intoxicated. At Cashel, Oct. 11, a farmer's servant named Cusick was found dead against the wall of the race-course—death caused by excessive drinking; six years ago a brother of deceased lost his life from a similar cause. The Protestant Cathedral of St. Canice, Kilkenny is being new roofed, the first step towards its restoration. During the past year the Presbyterian Church of Ireland raised upwards of £83,000 for religious and charitable purposes. At a recent meeting of the Waterford Board of Guardians, Mr. Conn proposed that "a humble address be presented to the Queen from the board, praying her Majesty, in the event of the abolition of the office of Lord Lieutenant, to give directions for the assembling of the Imperial Parliament for one month in each year, in her loyal city of Dublin, for the transaction of Irish business alone, reserving all Imperial matters, English affairs, and foreign relations, for the sittings at the Palace of Westminster." On Oct. 11 great rejoicings took place in Antrim, on the occasion of the coming of age of Lord Masereene. At Galway lately shoals of herring appeared at the dock gates, and on a Captain Oliver proceeding with boats to take the fish, the Claddagh men attacked him with stones and diverted him from his purpose—the fishermen of the Claddagh, in obedience to traditional usage, only fish every second day, and although the bay swarm with fish, they will not allow any one to break this rule. A case has occurred at the Post-office, Clonmel, which may throw some light on the irregularities attending the transmission of letters to America and elsewhere: a young man named Macnamara, clerk in the office, has been detected removing shilling stamps from foreign letters; he has been committed for trial. The '48 patriot, John Martin, of Kilbrony, County Down, has published a letter denying that John Mitchell has been conscripted and made to serve in the Confederate army: Mr. Mitchell has volunteered as a private in a volunteer ambulance corps, lately raised at Richmond. Last week the second daughter of the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, was married to the Rev. John Westupp Brady, of Aghadoe, Killarney. On the 19th of September, Ellen Carroll, a pretty, interesting child four years old, was stolen from the house of her brother, John Carroll, 3 Castle-street, by a female dressed in black; a large reward has been offered for the recovery of the child, but up to the present without avail. In anticipation of the general election, Galway is placarded with the following address: "Conservatives of Galway! hold yourselves disengaged! A friend and favourite will be in the field in a few days!" "Ye antient sport of Hawking" has been resuscitated in Ireland, by Mr. Corbett, of Castleconnell, Limerick. This gentleman has a splendid band of 20 hawks, and on a late occasion he entertained a large company of sporting men, who witnessed the surprising feats of the falcons with intense interest. Pigeons, rooks, magpies, and other 'game,' were swept down by the noble birds, and wild duck coming to grief in a bay at Newport. Yesterday, October 21, the brother and heir of the Earl of Wicklow, Captain Howard, died suddenly, at Harold's-cross, from the effects of intemperance. The Rev. Father Codd, O.S.F., for many years officiating at the Franciscan church Limerick, has joined the convent of his order in Dublin. A handsome testimonial has been presented to the Rev. William Maher, C.C., on his removal from Templemore to Thurles. On Sunday last the Right Rev. Dr. M'Nulty was solemnly consecrated coadjutor Bishop of Meath. The Rev. Thaddeus O'Malley delivered a lecture on Monday in the Mechanics' Institute, to a crowded audience. The new lecturer proposed as his subject, "The Northern cause stated and upheld;" and he gave a vivid and truthful history of the noble efforts of the Northern people to subdue the rebels of the South. Thunders of applause greeted the words of Moore:—

"Rebellion, foul dishonoring word,
Whose wrongful blight so oft hath stained,
The holiest cause that pen or sword,
Of mortal, ever lost or gained!"

On Sunday, the 16th of October, a large meeting of Irish Nationalists was held in the county Tipperary. Contingents from Dublin, Kilkenny, Carrick-on-Suir, and Mullinahone, marching to the place of meeting to the sound of fife and drum, and wearing green hat-bands and scarfs, in regular military order. A large force of police appeared on the scene, and the large assembly of Ireland's future liberators dispersed in all directions. On Sunday, 9th of October, the townland of Ballinamuck, Longford, was the scene of a terrific combat between the rival factions of the Cassidy's and Farrell's, reminding one of the good old times when Ireland was

"A land where the whiskey delighting,
Maddened the spirit and drove away care:
Where the lads were employed in love-making or fighting,
All night or all day at the wake or the fair."

In the encounter at Ballinamuck, the Cassidys suffered a defeat, being outnumbered by the Farrells, who were armed with pitchforks, spades, shovels, and kippeens. On the 20th October an attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Wilson, steward of the Earl of Leitrim, in Donegal. The would-be assassins concealed themselves in some stacks of corn, and on Wilson, in a tax-cart, nearing the school-house of Tullyconnell, he was fired at, slugs lodging in his chest and legs. The countrypeople permitted the perpetrators to escape; and up to the present the constabulary have not arrested them. Wilson is in a critical condition.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

ENGLISH STORE ROBBED—RENCONTRE BETWEEN TWO SMOKERS.

November 28.

Yesterday afternoon the streets were quite in an uproar, by the shouts of 'stop, thief!" It seems some fancy men had entered Mr. Newnham's store, in Calle 25 de Agosto, by false keys, and robbed the desk of what money it contained. Several nights previous Mr. Newnham was writing until quite late, when he heard some one knock at the door: he called out to know who it was, and a reply was to open the door, which, of course, he did not do. After listening, he heard several voices outside. Yesterday he went out to the Buceo with his son, who is still suffering from a fall from the azotea. Some time since he left about noon, and as the carriage was at the door preparing to leave, these thieves, no doubt, were on the watch: soon after he left several persons were seen trying the lock of the door. Mr. Newnham returned at five o'clock p.m., and saw a person come out of his shop. Just as he got to the door he found another, whom he grappled with and got down; the fellow tried to get out a dagger that he had, but Mr. Newnham, who is a strong, determined man, held him fast until the police came and secured him. Chase was then given to the other two one of whom was also arrested. They are Italians, and dressed quite in genteel style. They had forced open his desk, and taken what little money there was there, about 60 patacons and $200 Buenos Ayrean money. Mr.

Newnham fortunately had deposited nearly a thousand dollars in the bank on Saturday. The only other thing taken was a box of cigars. About half of the money and the cigars were found upon the fellows taken; they also found a bunch of keys.

Yesterday one of our residents, Sr. Silva, agent for the Brazilian steamers from Rio and Martin Garcia, attempted to commit suicide. It appears he is very much embarrassed in money matters, and is a defaulter for the amount of $55,000. An agent came in the French steamer yesterday, and he felt so mortified that he attempted to commit suicide, by taking strychnine, but the dose was not sufficient, and he is still alive. He is rather addicted to gambling and lotteries: he has a wife and several children.

On Friday evening Dr. Manier, a homœopathic doctor from the United States, when passing through the plaza at about 9 o'clock p.m., was accosted by a person named Butler, in the employ of Mauá, who asked for a light from his cigar. The Doctor handed the stump of a cigar which he was smoking, and walked on; afterwards Butler came up to him and told him he had thrown the cigar stump at him as an insult; the Doctor immediately slapped him on the face twice, when a scuffle ensued, and both parties got pretty well pounded and scratched. I hear since that the Doctor has challenged Butler, so probably there will be a continuation of this row.

The United States gunboat Iriquois, Commander Rodgers, arrived here yesterday from Rio. She is very much like the Mohican. She is 1016 tons, and is one of the cruisers sent in pursuit of the Florida, and is consort of the famous Wauchusetts.

Two Italian gunboats arrived here on Friday — one is quite a small vessel.

The thieves who sacked Mr. Newham's store, also carried off a bundle of labels, which were rolled up: they, no doubt, thought they were bank bills.

FREE TRADE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Effects on Producers.

(a.) Wheat.—The quantities of home-grown wheat returned as sold in our market in 1842, were 4,091,235 quarters, and in 1858, 5,203,948 quarters, exhibiting an increased demand for English corn under Free Trade to the extent of more than 1,000,000 quarters. The average price in the former year was 57s. 3d. per quarter; in the latter, 44s. 2d. That farmers can get as high a price under Free Trade while the country is prosperous, as under Protection while it is is badly off, is shown by the fact that the average price in two recent years (1854 and 1855) was 72s. 5d. and 74s. 8d. per quarter, or considerably higher than the average for any year since 1819.

(b.) Silk.—The duty on foreign silk manufactures, which formerly amounted to 30 per cent., has been reduced to 15. The exports of British manufactured silks, which amounted, in 1842, to 590,189*l.* increased, in 1858, to 2,096,300*l.* in 1856 and 1857 were as much as 2,900,000*l.* Until 1826 foreign silks were entirely prohibited; but although the British manufacturer had a complete monopoly of the home market; the trade was far from being prosperous, the exports only averaging about 350,000*l.* per annum.

(c.) Wool.—In 1842 foreign wool was subject to a duty of from ½d. to 1d. per lb., while Colonial wool was admitted duty free. In that year 19,486,719 lbs. of Colonial, and 27,394,920 lb. of foreign wool, were imported. The protection with which it was thus attempted to nurture the home and Colonial producer was entirely abolished in 1844; and in 1858, while the importations of foreign wool had increased to 11,527,621 lbs. or only one-half as much again as in 1842, the importations of Colonial wool increased to 85,211,099 lbs., or between 4 and 5 times their former amount, despite the loss of all protection. The production of wool at home has also largely increased at the same time. But so great is the power of consumption under Free Trade, that notwithstanding all this increase of supply, the demand has raised the price from 10d. to 11d. per lb; in 1842, to 1s. 6d. or 1s. 8d. per lb. in 1858, of course to the great advantage of the producer. The exports of British woollen manufactures also increased in that time from 5,185,045*l.* to 9,776,944*l.*, and of woollen yarn from 637,305*l.* to 2,966, 923*l.*

(d.) Sugar.—Foreign sugar remained prohibited in 1842, Colonial sugar paying 25s. 2d. per cwt. Since then foreign sugar has been admitted to compete with Colonial, and the duties on all sugars have been greatly reduced, and the consumption, which amounted in 1842 to 193,423 tons, increased in 1858 to 424,523 tons. Of that amount 156,128 tons were foreign sugar, which it was predicted would drive Colonial sugar entirely out of the market, the remaining 268,395 tons coming from our own Colonies, which instead of being ruined by competition, sent us nearly 50 per cent. more than ever.

It would be easy to multiply illustrations to swell the above figures. In fact, the difficulty rather is, to select from the vast mass of evidence of every kind that has accumulated, and that continues to accumulate to testify to the incalculable benefits that in a short space of fifteen or sixteen years have accrued to this country from the practical adoption of the principles of Free Trade; or, to speak more accurately, from the reversion to the simple precepts of Nature, which have been so well epitomised by a great Frenchman in five short words; Laissez faire et laissez aller."

THE COLONY OF SAN CARLOS

The Justice of peace of this colony has furnished the Government of Sta Fe with statistics returns ending June 30th 1864. The colonists number 641 souls, of whom 357 are Catholics and 281 Protestants. The distribution of sexes is as follows: men 241, women 170, boys 116, girls 114. The various nationalities are: Swiss 407, Italians 121, French 93, Germans 16, Argentines 5.

The colony possesses one church, 6 azotea houses, 198 thatch roofs. Their stock consists of 3276 tame horned cattle, 696 horses, 1808 mestiza sheep, 221 pigs. Their farms and plantations cover 8400 acres, divided into 120 lots of 20 cuadras each. The green crops sown are 613 bushels wheat, and 377 bushels Indian corn, besides 75,950 fruit-trees. There are 3 dry-goods stores, 11 groceries, 2 mills, one carpenter's shop, and one blacksmith's forge. The schools are three in number, directed by three clergymen, of whom two are Protestant and one Catholic. The authorities consist of a Justice of Peace, and a Commissary.

The demand for paper money is very severe, and specie shows every tendency to decline. The business on 'change and in the plazas was extremely limited, in fact things could not be duller. The brokers are beginning to negotiate exchange, but takers refuse to accede to the pretensions of some drawers. There were several first class bills offered to-day at 49¼, which we believe will be the rate for this packet.

Money is very tight, as nearly all the bill discounters refuse to renew bills.

The Provincial Bank, it was said by some of the brokers, will burn 9 millions on next Tuesday, which must necessarily tend to increase the stringency in the market.

Yesterday, in mentioning the new rate of interest of the Provincial Bank, we made a slight mistake. The rate is, charge on paper and gold, 11 p ☰, allow on paper and gold, 8 p ☰.

People on 'Change begin to think that there is a storm brewing up the river, and it was freely said on the Bolsa to-day that General Virasoro, who went by land from Concordia to Paraguay about ten days ago, has been receiving his pay from the Paraguayan Government for the last 12 months. If there is any truth in this it would seem that the detention of the Paraguayan steamer imports the realization of President Lopez's threat. There is a most uneasy feeling on the matter, as it is the universal belief if Paraguay invades the Banda Oriental the whole River Plate will be in a blaze. On Saturday we will probably hear from Corrientes how matters stand.

Put on the berth for Antwerp, by Messrs. John P. Boyd & Co., the Dutch brig, Nicholas Albert, to load in the inner roads.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artizans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

P.p. Mauá and Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p ⅋) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ELLWOOD'S PATENT AIR-CHAMBER HATS

CAUTION.—The Patentees having established the validity of their Patent, in an action tried on the 20th and 21st days of June instant, in the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, before Lord Chief Justice Erle and a Special Jury, in which Ellwood and another, of No. 24 Great Charlotte-st., Blackfriars Road, in the Borough of Southwark Wholesale Hat Manufacturers, were Plaintiffs; and Christy and others, of No. 35 Gracechurch-street, in the City of London, also Wholesale Hat Manufacturers, were Defendants; and the Jury, having by their verdict found that the above-named Defendants had infringed the Plaintiffs' Patent, and that the invention was new in England and in India at the date of the Letters Patent—We, the above named Plaintiffs, do hereby give notice to all Manufacturers, Dealers in, and Sellers of Hats, Caps, or Helmets, that we shall proceed by suit in Chancery against all persons so manufacturing, dealing in, or selling Hats, Caps, or Helmets, constructed on the principle of "Ellwood's Patent Air Chamber Hat," unless the previous consent of the Patentees be obtained, at the same time reserving to ourselves the right of taking proceedings against prior infringers.

Rams—Rams—Rams.

The undersigned, in calling attention to his large and superior stock of Rams and Breeding Sheep, begs to inform his Friends in the Camp that he has on hands a splendid collection of animals, from Three Hundred to Five Thousand Dollars, more, and is confident that each in its class will compete with anything in the province.

In the "Rambouillet type" will be found some fine specimens of the pure blood, besides crossings from the "Merino," possessing the size, shape, and length of staple for which this class is so much admired.

In the "Negrette" he has also some beautiful animals of pure blood, as likewise the "Negrette" drawn from the fine Merino," a "Cria" remarkable for compact shape and close heavy wool.

In addition to the above he wishes to draw especial attention to his celebrated Argentine breed, between the "Rambouillet" and "Negrette Ewe," and which, after seven years' experience, he can fully recommend as combining size and shape with length and weight of wool—qualities so anxiously looked for by all experienced sheep-farmers, and which have given so much satisfaction to those who have already purchased of this class. In buying the above in half, three-quarter, and pure blood, already acclimatized, there is an immense advantage, as Rams reared in this country are not so delicate and withstand the winter better than imported animals, besides being sold much cheaper, and only requiring ordinary care.

He can likewise supply the above classes in Ewes, either picked or by the hundred, and wishes to remark that all have been in prime condition throughout the past summer.
